Public Meetings Set For Road Decisions In Upper Valley

Two meetings of great importance to property owners from Los Laureles Grade through Carmel Valley Village and also of importance to Village merchants will be held next Monday.

A meeting for property owners from Los Laureles Grade to Ford Road will be held in the afternoon, at 1:00 p. m., at the Community Center. CVPOA president John Sigourney stresses, "This meeting has nothing to do with the Village. "He added his voice to that of Dr. Ed Marcucci of the Monterey County Planning Commission in urging all affected property owners to "make themselves known, investigate what is being planned, and come forward with your objections, if you have them, NOW!"

A meeting for property owners and Village Merchants from Laurel Drive through the Village will be held that evening at 7:30 in the Multipurpose room at Tularcitos School. A group of merchants who prefer to have the through road by-pass the commercial district entirely, taking some alternate route (as, for ex-

Difficult and Painful Task

THIS AERIAL SHOT of Carmel Valley between Los Laureles Lodge and Rancho Del Monte Country Club was taken several years ago when a through road was previously considered. Dubbed "The Autobahn" by an aroused local citizenry, the proposal was roundly rejected. . . . That the task of threading four lanes through this narrow and uneven Valley has grown no less difficult with the years is easily seen when the photo above is compared with the present Preliminary Study Routes (which were printed on pages 9 - 10 of last week's Outlook.) Additional construction in recent years has inevitably rendered the task still more painful and costly.

FOR UNITED CEREBRAL PALSY, there will be a "Thanksgoing Hop" in all parts of the United States on Friday, November 29. Mrs. Beatrice Testa of Carmel Valley (left), president of the local tri-county area for United Cerebral Palsy, was photographed recently at the national convention in Chicago with Gary Clarke and Peggy March, two of the many stars of the entertainment world who will be participating. The local "Thanksgoing Hop" will be held in the Armory of the Monterey Peninsula College. The evening will begin at an early 7:00 p. m. with a record hop; an orchestra for dancing will commence at 9 p. m.

Come for Lunch!

St. Dunstan's Annual Bazaar Saturday

Soft drink bottle-caps covered and joined by a crochet chain stitch result in a gay hot-plate holder; terry cloth guest towels, folded, stitched and pertly tasseled, are transformed into cozy slippers; seven tall juice cans, padded and covered, make a child's footstool in a unique scalloped design! All three of these ideas were featured in Better Homes and Gardens Christmas issue last year and are typical of the unusual gift items designed and made by the ladies auxiliary of St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church for their annual Christmas Bazaar. (The hot-plate, incidentally, was the inspiration of Mrs. Ernest Thompson, the child's footstool that of Mrs. Rudolph Ploense. A hand-made bun warmer by Mrs. Harry Townsend and a humorous man's apron by Mrs. Philip Walker were also featured in the magazine.)

This year the Bazaar, to be held in the Carmel Valley Community Center from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p.m. Saturday, will have a "Businessmen's Luncheon" break (but ladies can come, too!).

In addition to the hand-made Christmas decorations and gifts, there will be a food and baked goods booth, under the direction of Mrs. Ned Sinclair and Mrs. Ed McPhee, a Kiddie Korner manned by Mrs. Ernest Thompson and Mrs. Robert Townsend and a Plant & Produce department managed by Miss Kay Witter. Other committee chairmen include Mesdames Rudolph Ploense, M. A. Quinto, Philip Mothersill and Arthur Napier.

LADIES OF ST. DUNSTAN'S Episcopal Church in Carmel Valley are busily completing preparations for the annual Christmas Bazaar, which last year attracted national attention with no less than 5 of the ladies' original designs being featured in the Christmas issue of Better Homes and Gardens magazine. Mrs. Rudolph Ploense, in foreground, is reviewing that issue while Mrs. Harry Townsend, center, wears a colorful muu-muu which will be one of several for sale. Mrs. Philip Mothersill, at right, adds finishing touches to an ornament. The sale will be held at the Carmel Valley Community Center from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., with a "Businessmen's Luncheon" to break up the day, under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Milbourne. Mrs. Philip Walker is General Chairman of the Bazaar again this year.

COLLEGE BONDS

When you read this, results of the college election will already be known. But when the Outlook went to press, the voting had not even begun!

No matter how it turned out, we are proud to have represented the astonishing number of people who by phone call, letter, or personal visit let us know they approved the Outlook's stand. Most of them added that they felt the opponents of the measure were blanketing the Peninsula with a fogscreen of half-truths in an effort to obscure the underlying issues. And a more impressively intelligent, well-informed, responsible number of people we have yet to hear from!

No matter how the college fared in the election, and no matter how beset by internal as well as external problems it may be, it has a host of worthwhile friends who care strongly about its future, that's for sure!

CARMEL VALLEY ROAD

Quite a few readers have asked us where we stand on the issue of the 4-lane "scenic" planlines. During the past year we, like many Valley residents, have undergone a change of opinion. No one who loves this Valley, one of the few of the State's loveliest which remain relatively unspoiled, wants to see a wide asphalt swath cutting through its narrow floor. Yet it has become increasingly clear that four lanes will be needed for safety's sake -- if only to protect fallible and flurried human beings from their own driving follies!

The concept of a widely divided pair of 2-lane, one way roads, designed to preserve natural features and take advantage of view points wherever possible, sounds less foreboding than an "ordinary" 4-lane installation. The plans which have been evolved during the past few months could not help but fall somewhat short of this ideal, however. Demands of individual property owners along the road have required one compromise after another, and obviously are going to require still more. Nonetheless, we think the present plans are at least a cut above what the County proposed last year, and by January probably will be the best which can be worked out at this time.

We support Dr. Edward Marcucci in his strongly-worded pronouncement to the Planning Commission that he would "go along with" the plans which will be presented in once-more modified form next January. The longer we, the residents, wait, the more devastation there will be to scenery in an effort to avoid destruction of new building.

But as the road approaches Carmel Valley Village, the problem grows ever more heart-breaking. A group of merchants is working hard to prevent the road from going through the commercial center. We suspect that the residents object with equal feeling to the prospect of the road going through a residential section away from the commercial area, such as the airport.

Regarding this part of the Valley, we have not made up our own minds. It is up to the property owners in the affected area to do that. Unfortunately, any decision which is made will be a hurtful one for some of them.

UNUSUAL ANECDOTE

Two well-known and much beloved elderly ladies who share a home on Village Drive, below the commercial section of Carmel Valley Village, were overheard discussing the road plans with consultant James Campbell at one of the recent road meetings.

"We have thought carefully about the Village needs," our eavesdropper-informant told us the ladies said, "and we feel it would be a crime to split the Village shopping area in half ... We think it would also be a shame to go past the school and through the heavily populated residential area around it ... We think if two of the lanes went through Village Drive, it would have a lovely view and would make a BEAUTIFUL road."

Someone standing nearby asked in amazement, "But don't you two LIVE on Village Drive ... ???"

Our informant said the two ladies nodded, but told him, "We have thought about it, and if it's what the Valley needs, then we are for it."

This is one of those rare little tales of a sort one all too infrequently hears these days.

Chest X-Rays

The mobile chest x-ray unit of the Monterey County Health Department will be parked outside the Carmel Post Office from 1:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Monday, December 16.

Cowan Parcel Again Before Plancom

BY DOROTHY REED

Garden apartments and panhandle lots will share the attention of Planning Commission members next Tuesday, with four Valley petitions scheduled for hearing.

At 1:30 p. m., the application of Jack Cowan for rezoning of 12 acres at Esquiline Road and C. V. Road will come before the commission for the third time. Lack of detailed plot plans has prevented action earlier. A garden apartment condominium is now designed for the site, with a total of "not more than 80" dwelling units. A presentation of this idea to the CVPOA Board of Directors a month ago met with strong opposition, to which developer E. H. Bouhaben promised equally emphatic counter-opposition before the County planners.

Mrs. Betty Oenning, real estate agent and longtime Valley resident, has emphasized that the plans include private drives, complete fencing with an electric gate, and are designed to save as many of the site's walnut trees as possible. The style of architecture is as yet unsettled, but would be "in keeping with the Valley." Mrs. Oenning's personal opinion is that the proposed development would be of considerable benefit to the community, "and I'm pretty careful about what happens in Carmel Valley," she declared.

Cowan, retiring president of the CV Chamber of Commerce and headmaster of the Cowan School, at last month's PlanCom meeting, called the plan "the lesser of many evils" and said that a use permit--not involving any zoning changes--could result in a "far more unattractive," project. Commissioner Marcucci then pointed out that the issuance of a use permit is not automatic but at the discretion of the Commission.

PAUL JONES RESIGNS

PlanCom will be officially notified of the resignation of Paul Jones from the Upper Valley Advisory Committee at its meeting on November 26. Both his home and his business have been removed from the Valley. The Advisory Committee has suggested that the Chamber of Commerce and the Property Owners Association be asked to nominate a successor.

CVPOA President John Sigourney opposed the proposal, calling it "as serious as anything we have been confronted with" and predicting that "if this is allowed, the Valley Master Plan will go down the drain."

A second rezoning application comes from Dr. Galen Egbert and proposes garden-type apartments on 3.45 acres on Ford Rd. This property is across from Tularcitos School, and is now in fruit trees. The hearing is set for 1:45 p. m.

W. R. Wilson wishes to establish a legal building site on a pan-handle lot in Rancho Chupinos. John Beach has applied for four at the end of La Rancheria. These petitions will be heard at 2:35 and 2:40 respectively.

OLLASONS HOME FROM HAWAII

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ollason, home from two weeks in the Islands, had the highest praise for the smooth working Civilian Defense who did a "miraculous" job of clearing the bumper to bumper traffic in Honolulu following the second tidal wave alert. The Ollasons were transferred to another hotel to wait out the emergency and viewed an impressive display of lighted ships and small boats which were moved out of the harbor to await the wave. The high point of their trip was falling in love with the island of Kauai. They stayed at the Cocoa Palms where they viewed the memorable torch lighting ceremony above a lagoon filled with pink and white night blooming water lilies. They found touring the coast of Kona interesting since it was peak season of the coffee bean crop with school children on vacation in order to assist with the harvest. The Volcanic National park of Hawaii, the orchid nursery of Hilo, the historic portion of Maui, the trip up the Wailua River to the Fern Grotto and the Captain Cook tour of Kealakekua Bay were just a few of the points visited during their tropical holiday. As so many before them, they found the tour of Pearl Harbor and the monument to the Arizona a very moving experience, particularly since they had known many of the Salinas boys who were on board the Arizona.

DR. MARCUCCI

Will Support Four-Lane Plan In January

BY BETTY BRANCH

"I think people should feel that the next hearing will be the final one. There will have to be some negotiations and adjustments in plans before them, but I'm prepared to go along with whatever they come up with on January 14." So Dr. Edward P. Marcucci, Carmel Valley's representative to the County Planning Commission, told the planners and a large audience last week following a hearing at which it was once again decided to continue the hearing on Carmel Valley Road planlines from Rancho Rio Vista to Dorris Drive. Since there will be only one planners' meeting in December and the agenda is a full one, the Carmel Valley Road hearing will come up again on January 14.

There has been a year and a half of planning and negotiations, with a planning consultant, jointly retained by the County and Carmel Valley property owners, retained this year to develop the plans in several sections -- the easternmost section ending above Carmel Valley Village.

Dr. Marcucci also told the people at last week's hearing, "I suggest that other property owners who wish to register objections attend the public meetings for this purpose and make themselves known."

Not So Bad

Despite the fact that Plancom voted to delay a decision once again, the hearing last week was not as stormy as elsewhere reported.

Superintendent Medill Bair of Carmel Valley Unified School District appeared as had been expected to object to the taking of land from in front of Carmelo School. Planners agreed that this represented a serious problem. Road Commissioner Bruce McClain explained again that each delay allows more new construction on land which may be needed for roadbed and makes the problem more difficult.

Superintendent Bair made it abundantly clear that he does not oppose the road widening project as a whole, only that portion of the plans which would deteriorate school functioning. "In fact," he told the Outlook following the meeting, "the more I hear about this 4-lane plan, the more I think it is a good and necessary thing." Bair recently moved here from the East to take his present school position and bought a home for his own family in Rancho Canada in lower Carmel Valley.

Beverly Stover, who was appointed by the CVPOA to work as an assistant to James Campbell, made a strong plea that it would be preferable to remove the water tank in front of Carmel Valley Manor rather than render the front classroom wing of Carmelo School virtually unusable because of the proximity of traffic noise. "The children are most important," he stressed. The tank was erected during the past year.

Objections to that portion of the plan affecting the Howard Hatton estate (just west of Descanso Oaks) were registered by Willard Branson, who was strongly supported by Dudley Swim of Druid Hills Ranch, his neighbor to the north. Swim stated that his business duties keep him away from this area much of the time, that he had therefore not known Approximately 51 of our club members, leaders and their families, attended the annual awards banquet which this year was held at Tom's Cafe in Carmel.

Special guest for the evening was Mr. Wisting, the new farm advisor. Mr. Wisting gave a welcoming speech, officers were installed, and high point trophies were presented. High point winners were as follows:

Senior Boy, Bill Muscutt, Jr.; Junior Boy, John Jacoby; Senior Girl, Hazel Jacoby; Junior Girl, Martha Crow.

It was a very nice evening for everyone and we want to thank Martha Crow and her committee for the nice job they did in planning and decorating for the banquet.

NEWS FROM HACIENDA CARMEL

by Edward G. Petherick

HAM DINNER

One hundred members enjoyed a ham dinner last week and were entertained afterward by Mrs. Florence Venn, one of our members. A talented actress, Mrs. Venn is quite well known on the Monterey Peninsula and has appeared recently at Monterey's First Theatre.

GIFTS

Among recent gifts to Hacienda Carmel were a complete set of metal working tools from Mrs. Walter Adams, a very fine Leslie speaker for our Hammond organ from Mr. and Mrs. William B. Kowran, a Zenith record player from the Harold Irelands and a Capehart record player from Cyrus Dash.

Needless to say, the members of Hacienda Carmel are deeply appreciative of these gifts and will put them to good use.

CONCERTS COMING

On Sunday, November 24, at 3:00 p. m. the Hammond Organ Society of the Monterey Peninsula will give a concert at Hacienda Carmel. Leah Holt of Santa Cruz will be at the console and in addition to her regular program will play numbers requested.

On Saturday night, November 30, a fine program of music is scheduled with Camille Oleata at the piano and Mary Dobel, cellist.

KOFFEE KLATSCH

Mrs. Leslie B. Wulff had a "coffee" last week for her house guest, Miss Ramona Wulff of Sacramento. Also present were Mrs. Horace Wulff of Sacramento and Edward and Delia Petherick. The "girls" went to school together in Sacramento many years ago and had quite a pleasant time reminiscing about the "good old days" with the Poppy Walking Club and the "Six Simple Simps."

On The Feminine Side

by Lorraine Twohig

In the dime store the other day, I was utterly shocked to realize that Christmas is almost upon us, what with the elaborate displays of ornaments, wrapping papers and all the accoutrements of holiday living. All of which brought to mind that I had neglected my savings towards the guitar for number two son, (half a sweater done for oldest son accomplished anyway)..... Also I hadn't put those special golf clubs in "lay away" yet for number One Man of the House... etc ... etc.

What to do about it? Aha... Will serve delicious, exciting, glamorous, and CHEAP meals! (Economical, I meant). In my clever way, I shall treat the family to Gourmet dining, for a matter of pennies..... Well, shall we say fifty cent pieces? Remembering back to the depression days, I unearthed some of my Mom's old recipes, and with additional inquiries, and research, via the left-overs in the refrig, I have come up with these goodies--guaranteed to help fill your piggy bank as well as the hearty appetites of autumn. Maybe you would like to try one:

All recipes serve approx. 6.

"RAGOUT OF FRANKFURTERS"
or, (Hot-dog stew.)

Boil five medium potatoes, after paring and cutting into small cubes. Save some potato water. Meanwhile, chop up several pieces of bacon, a large onion, and a green pepper, and fry 'til done. Slice 1/2 doz. hot dogs, brown, and add to mixture. Drain cooked potatoes, and add with one can of Campbell's tomato soup to mixture. Mix well, and add a little potato water, and a bit of flour mixed with cold water, to thicken. Add salt and pepper and serve, thoroughly heated. Nice with cole slaw and corn meal muffins.

"BEANS SUPREME"

In a large bowl, put two large cans of Campbell's Pork and Beans. Add a thinly sliced onion, several generous dashes of Worcestershire sauce, and a heaping tablespoon of prepared mustard. Add a can of tomato soup, put into flat buttered casserole, and top with several strips of bacon. Put into medium oven, and bake 'til bacon is done, and serve piping hot.

"FILET OF SOLE, (or any fish on sale) FLORENTINE"

Butter a large casserole, and place a layer of well drained spinach or broccoli, on the bottom. Then place the pieces of fresh or defrosted fish fillets (2 pkgs.) and cover with a medium-thick white sauce, made with lots of butter, and mushrooms, too. Sprinkle with grated cheese, and bake about half an hour. MMMMM..... You might add a dash of sherry wine, if desired, in the sauce, for that Continental flavor.

Then of course there's always good old home-made potato soup, served with grilled cheese sandwiches, and a gooey dessert. But I'll stop here, because in writing this I find I am suffering the pangs of hunger, and must take care of this at once, and so Adieu.....

Community Center President Asks School District To Operate Pool

BY MARJORY LLOYD

James A. Smith, president of the Carmel Valley Community Center, appeared before the Carmel Unified School District board of education on November 13 and offered to lease the center's proposed pool to the school district providing the district would operate the Valley pool as it does the pool at Carmel High School.

He emphasized that the pool, representing a $50,000 capital asset, would be leased to the district at a nominal fee, perhaps a dollar a year. Operation of the pool by the district would assure Valley residents that conduct standards would be similar to those enforced at the high school pool and there would be no loitering, smoking, etc. in the vicinity of the Valley pool, he added.

William G. Wakefield, recreation director for the school district, presented to the board a cost estimate, $2,000 - $2,500, on operation of the Valley pool for six months during the Spring, Summer and Fall as an instructional and recreational facility.

He based this estimate on the cost of operating the high school pool and added the Valley pool might cost the district considerably less than his estimated figure.

WANT TO MAKE A PLEDGE ?

In response to many questions as to how a family can make a pledge to the swimming pool fund, a pledge card is printed below. Simply cut it out, fill it in and send it to P. O. Box POOL, Carmel Valley, California. The Swimming Pool committee also wishes to emphasize that money contributed to the pool fund is being kept in a special pool bank account and will be returned to individual donors should the project be abandoned.

The committee explains that it must know the extent of donations and pledges by December 15 to meet the deadline on the Paddock Pool contract. This bid of $28,400 was the lowest submitted because of the opportunity of using men and equipment during the winter slack season.

Halloween postscripts: An old oak leaf cluster to the thoughtful third graders in Mrs. Barbara Belleman's class at Tularcitos Elementary. These children waived their usual trick-or-treat privileges in order to campaign for UNICEF with proceeds going to the world's needy children. The children were told that the $23.03 that they collected would provide milk for 5,000 children or cure yaws in 270 children. This same class recently took a field trip to the Pacific Grove Museum where they enjoyed lectures on rocks and birds. They were accompanied by Mrs. Carl Baker, Mrs. Ray Slingerland, Mrs. Don Medkeff and Mrs. James Booth.

(P. P. S.).... The older children at Logan Hall couldn't have been more thrilled than when their invitations to the Halloween dance sponsored by the Peninsula Activities for the Handicapped arrived ... and the charming decorations made by Mrs. Irving Ollason for a pre-Halloween luncheon for the Carmel Valley Women's Club delighted the youngsters when they were delivered to Children's House.

Mrs. Joan Palermo and James Tombleson were married recently in the Carmel Valley Community Chapel. Earlier the bride enjoyed a shower given by her sister, Mrs. William Hall, and Mrs. John Woods. Attending were Mmes. Carl Lee, Robert Davis, E. S. Tombleson, Charles Gansel, D. L. Ingersoll, Alexander Collins, S. D. Woods, Herbert Reuter, Jean Sutliff, George Palmer, Ronald Ingersoll, Reginald Bennett, G. W. Tombleson, Fred Boehme, Bud Tombleson, and the Misses Judi Sutliff, Joanne Halle, Katie Sutliff, and Suzanne Gansel. Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mmes. Richard Lane, Donald Weber, Gordon Hopper, Harold Bozarth, Robert Drew, and Roy Millard.

Members of the Auxiliary of the Carmel Valley Fire Department met last week at the Fire House to discuss plans for the Christmas doll. This year a Kissy Doll and wardrobe will be awarded to some lucky winner when the drawing is held December 16th. Proceeds each year are donated to Children's House. Tickets are now on sale at the Grape Vine and from any Auxiliary member.

Tamara Van Laanen of Via Milpitas is home from an exciting month in the Islands with experiences that ran the gamut from two tidal wave alerts, a volcano eruption, and the pageantry and festivities of Aloha Week! Tamara stayed with relatives in Kailua and Kaneohe on the Island of Oahu but visited both "windward and leeward" sides of the island. Her aunt, Mrs. Louise Shook, returned with her and will remain until Thanksgiving. A former resident until she left three years ago to make her home in the Islands, Mrs. Shook is enjoying her opportunity to visit with so many old friends.

Mrs. Betty McGowan's third graders ended their mythical tour of Mexico with a fiesta at the Plaza Linda Restaurant. The hospitable Diazes showed the children their collection of artifacts and played Mexican records for them while they enjoyed samples of tacos, frijoles and coke. The Tularcitos "travelers" thanked them by singing the Mexican songs they had learned while studying about our neighbors to the south.

Casa Serrano, one of Monterey's historic adobes, was the site of a thank you tea recently for Volunteer workers who assisted with the recent Community Chest drive. Representing Carmel Valley were Mrs. Blair McDonald, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Richard Schenck and Mrs. Mark Hattan.

A son weighing 7 pounds 2 ounces was born October 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Yaeger of 71 Paso Hondo. A new brother is nice, but the other Yaeger children, Glen, Lindy and Karl were even more delighted by a visit from grandmother. Barbara's mother, Mrs. Harry Wilson of La Habra, arrived in the Valley to lend some welcome assistance.

Sheriff Davenport Speaks to Men's Fellowship

If you should have the misfortune of getting stranded on a rocky ledge in Monterey County, at least you may have the comfort of knowing that a completely equipped and experienced rescue squad soon will be making every effort to remove you from your lofty perch!

Sheriff Jack Davenport and one of his deputies, Sgt. Tom Gipson, told the Men's Fellowship meeting at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel last week of the work of this squad, explaining the use of the safety equipment on display. Gipson is a retired U. S. Army captain and a skin diver.

From a piece of parachute cord and a pair of tennis shoes at the start of 1963 to a fully equipped rescue trailer unit is the stride that has been made this year. Because of the nature of the coastline and the heavy influx of visitors, this county has at least two rescues to make for every one in other counties, Sergeant Gipson said. And yet, until recently, the county was one of the few in the State without rescue equipment.

The men's meeting was the first to be held in several years. Don Brill, who presided pending the election of officers, said it was the intention to hold dinner meetings frequently from now on and the next one is scheduled for the fourth Monday night in January. Between 40 and 50 men attended the recent meeting. The dinner was served by the Women's Guild of the church.

Sheriff Davenport told of the years when there was no rescue squad to call on when cars went over cliffs, hunters became lost or hikers fell down banks. Ropes and stretchers had to be borrowed for any rescue effort. Deputies risked their lives working with ropes they had pieced together.

Both Davenport and Gipson spoke highly of the splendid cooperation received in rescue efforts from the Army, Navy and Coast Guard. Each of these services has sent helicopters at various times.

The rescue squad consists of Capt. Bob Schuler, Sgt. Tom Gipson and Deputies Phil Oswalt, Jack Lewtschuk, Jerry Webster, Zane Schuler, Larry Schumacher and John Crisan. All have had Red Cross training and several of them attended a rescue school held at Riverside that was sponsored by the Sierra Club.

The rescue equipment includes ropes, stretchers, special shoes for working on cliffs, radios for communication and a power device that will hoist two or three persons up a cliff at one time at a rate of 20 feet per minute. This unit weighs less than 20 pounds.

The equipment is valued at $3,500 but the county has spent only $1,000 on it, Davenport said, as much of it has been donated by citizens and members of the rescue squad.

The sheriff said this is a very dangerous area for climbing as the cliffs are mostly of disintegrated granite instead of climbing rock.

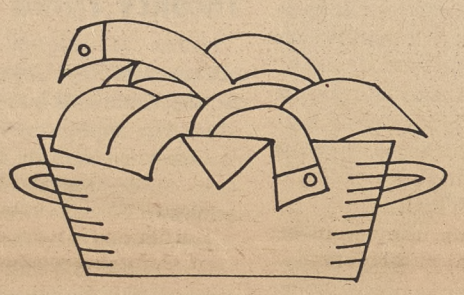
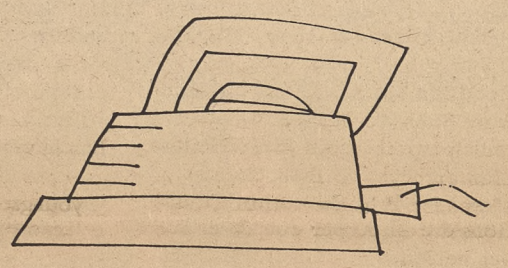
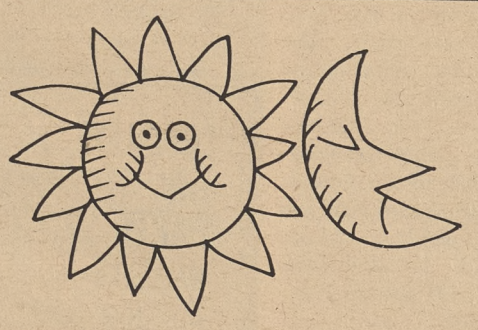
Six reasons why you'll waltz through washday with an electric dryer:



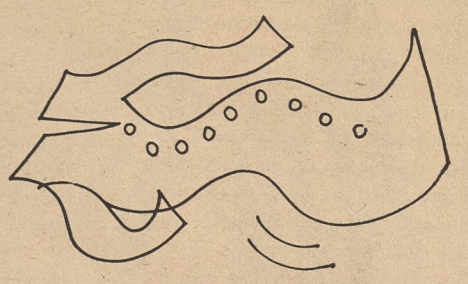
You won't have to lift and lug those back-breaking baskets of wet wash any more. (The average homemaker carries about two tons of wet wash to the line each year.)



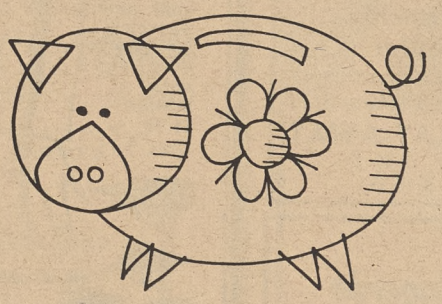
Ironing is easier. New damp-dry settings make clothes come out just right for ironing. And some fabrics come out so wrinkle-free, they need no ironing at all.



You'll be able to dry your wash at any hour of the day or night. And don't forget the weather! Or rather, do forget it. With a dryer, any day is washday.



Laundry comes out soft, fluffy . . . looks and feels good. And a dryer's ultra-violet light gives your clothes the sweet smell of summer sunshine all year long.



You'll save money on clothing—especially for "small fry." Clothing lasts longer, and fewer clothes and linens are needed when you can wash and dry any time.

You'll feel so much fresher at the end of the day. And think of the extra time you'll be able to spend with your family — instead of with your clothesline.

ESIN AND HILMI MARRIED

Esin Bilengil of Istanbul, Turkey and Hilmi Voskay of Carmel Valley were married on November 13 by Judge Richard Eldred. Mr. and Mrs. James E. Newmarch of Carmel witnessed the 4:30 p. m. ceremony in the city hall of Pacific Grove.

Mr. Voskay is a professor in the Turkish department of the Defense Language Institute, West Coast Branch, at the Presidio of Monterey. He also has taught geography, political science and history at Monterey Peninsula College.

Last year, during a sabbatical leave, he returned to his native land and again met Esin. She flew to the United States to be married but had to go back on Saturday to Turkey where she is secretary to the administrator of Turkish Airlines. However, she will be here permanently in a month and a half.

Among those who entertained for the Voskays prior to their marriage were Mrs. Mary Jane Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Newmarch. Also, Mr. Voskay gave a party in his Valley home to introduce his fiancee to Carmel friends.

AT LANGUAGE CONVENTION

Mrs. Beatrice Wiegman, French teacher at Carmel Junior High School, flew to Long Beach to attend the third state convention of the Foreign Language Association of Northern California and the Modern Language Association of Southern California during Veterans Day weekend. She reports attendance, 1215 persons, exceeded all expectations and discussions were stimulating. These centered mostly on plans to implement the state law which will require all public school 6th, 7th and 8th grade students to be taught a foreign language starting in 1965. Speakers included members of the U. S. and California departments of education and faculties of California universities, state colleges and junior colleges.

VERONICA TO WED

Veronica Taylor and Anthony Andrew Lombardi will be married on November 23 at 2:00 p. m. in the Carmel Woods home of Veronica's mother, Mrs. Joan Taylor, by Judge Eugene Harrah, a family friend. Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Veronica will have Mrs. Berenice Evans as her matron of honor and Lori Haviland will be her bridesmaid.

Her fellow workers in the business office of the telephone company surprised Veronica with a kitchen shower the week before last.

CHS REPRESENTATIVE

Linda Kay Hudder represented Carmel High School as a member of the Youth Planning Board for the 6th Annual Youth Conference on Alcoholism which was held at Asilomar last week.

Carmel by Spike Heel

Did you see those huge holes in front of city hall last week? This week, Oregon grape, juniper and a pine tree replacing the old messy acacia are planted in the pits. The city council must have decided the bare, scorched earth appearance of the city hall garden would shock those Spanish dons when they arrive. Carmelites have been horrified for months.

Someone said the holes were spike heel prints. Imagine suggesting I am a dinosaur. I'm not that old!

According to the superintendent of the Carmel Unified School District, it's been open season for Bair in California since July 1.

Saturday morning at the post office parking lot, 9:00 a. m. - 1:00 p. m. is the time and place to get a pine to plant -- FREE. The forestry commission will hand out 1,500 seedlings, also give directions for planting and nurturing the additions to Carmel's forest. At the first tree give-away last spring 500 seedlings were all gone in 45 minutes.

When these 2,000 saplings grow a bit more we won't be able to see the people for the pines. But -- don't tell the tourists. They like to look at us.

School District Buys Buses

At its November 13 meeting, the CUSD board of education employed three new teachers, authorized the purchase of two new buses and adopted two more bus routes.

Board members did not discuss the proposed sale of Sunset School to the city of Carmel. Reports from the district and city's negotiating committees on the sale are expected on December 5.

The new teachers are: Mrs. Lillian Hoehn, 4th grade, Tularcitos; Mrs. Jewell Alexander, English 11, two periods, Carmel High; Mrs. Barbara Rainer, art, four periods, Carmel High.

Bus purchases authorized were a 91-passenger bus, cost $26,590; and a 60-passenger bus, cost $9,620.

The bus routes adopted were the Pebble Beach run, the route through Carmel to the junior high, also the Hatton Fields-Mission Fields run to the same school. The latter route will be eliminated when walkways are established in the Valley entrance area.

Board Of Education Vacancy Filled

Hilton M. Bialek is the new member of the Carmel Unified School District's board of education. His appointment to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Richard Snyder, was announced by President Dr. Robert Newton at the meeting of the school board last week. Following the announcement, Dr. Bialek took office.

Currently residing on Hatton Road, Dr. Bialek has lived on the Peninsula since 1957. He is a senior research scientist for the Human Resources Research Unit at the Presidio of Monterey.

He obtained his B. A. degree from Rutgers University; his M. A. from Columbia University, and his Ph. D. in general and experimental psychology from Claremont Graduate School in California.

Dr. Bialek and his wife, Shirley, have three children. They are Andrea, six years old and a first grader at River School; Paul, four; and Carol, two.

New Church Asks To Use Sunset

The new Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula obtained permission on November 13 from the Carmel Unified School District to use Room 11 at Sunset School for worship services.

The church, recently organized by former members of the Church of the Wayfarer congregation, has as officers: Dr. Charles N. Pearson, president; Mrs. Dudley Swim, vice president; Mrs. Walter Burde, secretary; Ted Fehring, treasurer; Col. Arthur H. Black, chairman of religious education and world outreach; Leo F. Miller, chairman of worship and fellowship; James P. Pruitt, chairman of trustees; Mrs. Charles McDaniel, president of the women's auxiliary.

Until articles of incorporation have been filed and other legal matters completed, the church will continue to use the Golden Bough Theatre for Sunday services.

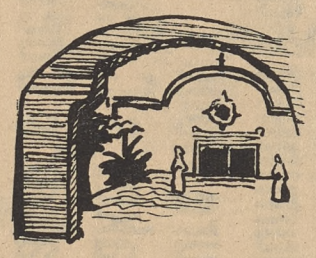
Mayor Of Petra, Carmel's Sister City, Arrives Friday With Group From Spain

by Marjory Lloyd

The flag of Spain will fly from the city flagpole in Devendorf Plaza this coming weekend in honor of Spanish dignitaries who will be official guests of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. Included in the group will be the Mayor of Petra on the Island of Mallorca. Carmel and Petra are sister cities. The link which binds the California and Spanish communities is Father Junipero Serra, founder of the California Mission system.



FRIDAY ARRIVAL

Father Serra was born in Petra. He died and was buried in Carmel Mission Basilica. On Sunday, the 250th anniversary of his birth, the Spaniards will present a stone plaque to the Mission commemorating the date. This plaque is being flown from Spain in military plane by the State Department of the United States.

SPANISH AMBASSADOR

The Spanish Ambassador to the United States, Senor Don Antonio Garrigues, is flying to California to join in the activities of next weekend in Carmel. The Lieutenant Governor of California, Glenn M. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, will also be here as well as the Spanish consul general from San Francisco, Senor Don Mariano Sanz Briz, and Senora Sanz Briz, and the Spanish consul general from Los Angeles, Senor Don Eduardo Toda.

According to an article in the Catholic Register, 200 persons will arrive by bus from Mexico to witness ceremonies at Carmel Mission on Sunday morning.

Last June, Mayor Eben Whittlesey of Carmel, Mrs. Whittlesey and their daughter, Deborah, flew to Spain as guests of the Spanish government. They took part in ceremonies honoring the 250th anniversary of Father Serra's birth on the Island of Mallorca both in Petra and Palma.

This weekend, the mayors of Petra and Palma will pay a return visit to Carmel. They will be accompanied by their wives and the president of the Friends of Junipero Serra society in Spain, and his wife. This group is being flown to California as guests of the cities of Carmel, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Also in the party, but flown to this country as the guest of a private person, will be the director of the Serra museum in Petra.

Mayor Whittlesey will welcome the visitors when they arrive at Monterey airport at 6:13 p. m. on Friday. In the party will be Senor Don Miguel Gil Torres, Mayor of Petra; Senor Don Maximo Alomar Jossa, Mayor of Palma; Senor Don Antonio Baiza Roca, President of the Amigos de Frey Junipero Serra; the wives of these three gentlemen; Senor Don Miguel Ramis Moragues, director of the Serra museum; and the Spanish consul general from Los Angeles. They will be the guests of H. R. Fonseca at the Jade Tree Inn during their Carmel visit.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Powers of Carmel Valley will entertain at dinner Senor and Senora Baiza Roca and Senor Ramis Moragues, all of whom they knew in Spain. The rest of the party will be guests of Mayor and Mrs. Whittlesey.

OFFICIAL WELCOME

Saturday morning, 10 a. m., there will be a special meeting of the Carmel city council to officially greet the city's guests at city hall. An official document will be presented to the Mayor of Petra on behalf of Carmel, Petra's sister city in Spain. Suitably inscribed trays commemorating the visit will also be presented to three Spanish dignitaries at this time.

Following the city hall ceremonies, the visitors will go to Carmel Mission Basilica where Harry Downie will conduct them on a tour of the historic site. The party will then have lunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Kelley in Pebble Beach.

Visits to the Royal Presidio Chapel in Monterey, and historic Peninsula adobes, also a scenic tour are scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

FORMAL DINNER

In the evening, the Carmel Rotary Club will be hosts for the Spanish visitors at a formal dinner at Del Monte Lodge. Among special guests at this affair will be Senator Fred Farr of Carmel, Supervisor Thomson J. Hudson and Mayor George Clemens of Monterey. The principal address of the evening will be given by the Spanish Ambassador to the United States. The latter will be a guest at Del Monte Lodge during his Peninsula stay.

MISSION CEREMONY

Sunday morning, Harry Downie will take the official party to Carmel Mission Basilica for the celebration of Mass at 11 a. m. Following Mass, a ceremony will be held in the Mission courtyard. The stone plaque will be presented to the Mission on behalf of the Friends of Junipero Serra society.

LUNCHEON

Afterwards, the Monterey History and Art Association will entertain the Spanish group at a luncheon in Casa Serrano, the society's headquarters.

The luncheon will end formal activities for the visiting group. If time permits, they will be taken on another sight-seeing tour before they leave by plane for San Francisco from Monterey airport at 7:25 p. m.

Mayor Appoints New Commissioner

Carmel's new planning commissioner, Anthony Vasconcellos, has lived in the city for ten years. He is a partner with Robert Connell in the Carmel Glass Company; also is owner of Horizon Inn, a motel at Junipero and Third.

He and his wife, Kathleen, are parents of a daughter, Mary Ann, 14, who is a student at Santa Catalina School for Girls.

"I realize I have a big task and will do my best for Carmel. I have it at heart and expect to spend the rest of my life here," Mr. Vasconcellos says in reference to his new duties.

He was appointed by Mayor Eben Whittlesey to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William Godwin, and was sworn into office on Nov. 13.

Deer Fodder

BY CHUCK KLINE
MANAGER,
VALLEY HILLS NURSERY

A few thoughts on plants that come to mind at this time of the year.....

Those of you lucky enough to have a good sized Camellia sasanqua blooming in your garden at this time of the year know how it can liven up the in-between seasons. This half shrub, half vine Camellia can be used as an informal shrub for half shady parts of the garden, or it may be espaliered on a wall or fence. It comes in many varieties now, mostly in the rose and white shades, both single and double flowering types. The sasanquas bloom heavily from early October until December, giving us some Camellia blossoms before the familiar Camellia japonicas come into bloom. They require no great amount of care. They will grow in full sun, but I find light shade to be best. They prefer a light soil a little on the acid side high in organic matter, so if you have heavy soil, mix in a liberal amount of peat moss and leafmold.

There are many holly varieties on the market; however, there are a few that do exceptionally well here that deserve special mention.

The most popular one is the English Holly, Ilex aquifolium. The most commonly propagated variety now is the clan called fertile which will set red berries without the assistance of a male plant, (forebodings of what the scientists have in mind for the human race?) although the berries will be sterile. The other English Hollies require the help of one of the stronger sex amongst the hollies. One male plant placed somewhere in the back of a garden will take care of all the hollies in the vicinity. If you are not sure whether you have a male or female plant, your nurseryman can usually tell you if you'll bring in a flower from your plant.

The Chinese Hollies, Ilex cornuta, give an abundance of large red berries, but they do not have the traditional pointed leaves that we associate with holly. These do not grow so large and are very useful for smaller gardens.

A large growing holly having broad leaves and large bright red berries 10 months of the year is the Wilson Holly, Ilex Wilsoni.

There are some fine variegated hollies, which can be used to brighten up dark corners in your garden.

An attractive vine for a covered patio or indoors in a light situation is the Stephanotis. This vine can be trained around a window or on a trellis. Its fragrant pure white blossoms will appear over a long period of time. The Stephanotis has long been a favorite flower in making bridal bouquets. Even without flowers, the waxy leaves make this an attractive indoor plant.

Road Meeting

ample, through the present airstrip) will present their arguments for an alternate plan.

John Sigourney stated that he is attempting personally to telephone all affected property owners, and has reached a great number of them, but that it is of course impossible to reach every one of them. Neighbors are asked to inform neighbors, etc., to make certain that everyone whose property may be affected is apprised of developments so that he may take appropriate action.

LAST CHANCE!

Sigourney, who has devoted much of his time to the road proposal since his election last Spring, also stated that next week's meetings will "in all probability be the last public opportunity to render objections and seek solutions" before a hearing on this last section of the plans is scheduled by the Planning Commission.

Road Protests

of the developing plans, which is why he had not come forward with objections sooner. Branson gave no reason for not having done so.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Grant both appeared to protest the plan as it affected property just west of Schulte Road, part of the old Martin estate. In a moving plea, Grant pointed out that what was once a 70-acre estate had been reduced to 30 acres through what he termed "community pressure and demands of the county ..... If the road is going to take another five acres, and the flood plain yet another, what will be left?" he inquired.

"There are just two schools of thought ... Either you own the land, and you love it, and you till it and care for it .... Or it's just loaned to you and you pay taxes on it until the government decides it wants to use it instead!"

Royden Martin, brother of Mrs. Grant, also appeared on her behalf.

Pool Request

Actual figures in Wakefield's report showed that the Valley pool, if operated for six months, or 121 days, would cost $6,081.50.

However, the income from 121 days of recreational swimming, with fees of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, should approximate $2,500. Elimination of bus service for Valley children to high school summer swimming classes would save $1,200. Also the Valley pool might save another $500, the salary of one playground leader at Tularcitos.

These sums, subtracted from the total cost of the Valley program, enabled him to estimate the $2,000 - $2,500 cost of the six-months pool operation.

Wakefield's report broke down the total cost of the swimming program as follows: instructor for eight weeks, $800; lifeguards for 121 days, $2,420; cashier for 121 days, $907.50; pool clean-up for the same period, $484; chemicals, cleaning materials, heat and electricity necessary to operate the pool, $1,470.

SILVER SLIPPERS

The Silver Slippers square dance group, which meets regularly every Monday at the Multi-purpose Room at Tularcitos School, has changed its meeting place next Monday in order to accommodate the open meeting where property owners and merchants of Carmel Valley Village will discuss the road plans presented by consultant James Campbell, jointly retained by Monterey County and the property owners associations. The Silver Slippers will meet next Monday at the Community Center.

Proposed instructional program in his report was three one-hour classes each weekday morning, with three instructors, during two four-week summer sessions. Such a program would provide three beginners' classes, probably two intermediate classes, one Junior Life Saving class, or any combination of classes that meets the needs of the students.

CARMEL JUNIOR HIGH

Band Merely Needs Experience, Leader Says

BY JAN DE COSTA

According to Joseph W. Larson, Carmel Junior High instrumental music director, the band did not suffer with the loss of the 9th graders as much as many people assume. The only reason the band suffered is that the boys and girls this year don't fit into the coats of the musicians last year.

Last year's band was better because of the fact that they had more experience. Mr. Larson stated, however, that in the coming spring the band will be just as valuable as it was last year.

The officers are as follows:

President, Greg Sprung, a very talented trumpeter and secretary, Tommy Turner, a beginning drummer.

New instruments being added to the band are the sousaphone, the tenor sax, the bass clarinet and the french horn.

Coming up is the annual Christmas program Tuesday, December 17. It will be on a Parent's Club meeting night with the band entertaining.

Also there will be other programs and assemblies they will be participating in.

Filipino Visitor Demonstrates Dances

BY SHEILA GRUNWALDT

Mrs. Doloros Mariano of the Far Eastern University in Manila came to Carmel Junior High School on November 6 at the request of Mrs. Jean White, girls physical education teacher.

Mrs. Mariano demonstrated and taught Filipino dances, during the third period for the seventh graders and fourth period for the eighth and ninth graders, in the gym.

Mrs. Mariano first demonstrated what she told us was a four-step dance. Then she showed us a dance that used the hands only. The students participated in both of these dances.

We would like to thank Mrs. White for getting Mrs. Mariano to come and demonstrate the dances to us.

FAMED AUTHOR TALKS TO CJHS

BY GREG CAMPBELL

The famed author Ralph Moody spoke to Carmel Junior High students on Monday, November 18th, in the school library where his books are enjoyed by CJHS students.

One of his best loved books is Little Britches, the true story of Mr. Moody's life as a boy in Colorado. A book that will surely be popular with the horsey set at our school is Come On Seabiscuit, which will be released in the very near future.

Now residing in Burlingame, California, Mr. Moody's life has been filled with various activities including ranching and farming. He is considered a foremost expert on American horses.

Perhaps the book he himself enjoyed most was Mary Emma and Company. This book is the story of Mr. Moody's mother and her business adventures. Mr. Moody just recently helped his mother celebrate her 90th birthday.

Mr. Moody's son, Chuck, is a teacher at Carmel High School.

A New Experiment in Responsibility

BY STEVE MEADOWS

Our faculty is experimenting with a new idea this year. Some outstanding 9th grade students are being allowed the privilege of using any of the school's facilities at any time they wish -- when not in class, that is.

Thus they are free to go to the library, typing rooms, language labs, shops, journalism room, music rooms and gymnasium for any extra practice required by their interests and activities.

When talking to Mr. Kenneth Weise, arts and crafts instructor, your reporter recorded the following words: "It's an opportunity for the outstanding students to show their worth. Everybody should be put on his own to show his self-reliance."

Mr. Dan Yurkovich, vice-principal, summed it up by saying, "I think it's great! The only way to teach responsibility is to give students a chance to show they can be responsible." Mr. Yurkovich also warned that if any student abused these rights, he would be sent back to study hall under the supervision of a teacher.

Mr. Yurkovich announced that eleven students would receive cards granting them permission to use their spare time on campus as they wish. These students are as follows: Karen Adams, Mary Faulkner, Roberta Goulding, Ann Foster, Mel Grimes, Kay McCombs, Shelley Rayne, Scott Sinclair, Adriann Ricupero, Lory Swan and your reporter, Steve Meadows. (Instructor's Note: Steve is the originator of the idea and to him goes the credit for the entire program).

Miss Willie Belle Mason turned to Huxley to express her opinion of the program. "Perhaps the most valuable lesson of all education is learning to do the right thing at the right time whether you want to or not."

In her own words, Miss Mason went on to say, "Anyone can do the right thing if watched, but to be able to take the responsibility on your own, organize your life, your thinking and your actions is being more than well-schooled. It is being wisely educated. In junior high the character traits for the next ten years of high school and college are being formed. The more we are given opportunities to develop these on our own, nobly and well, the finer we will become."

Mel Grimes, student body president, revealed that he thinks it gives the students a chance to show that they are becoming mature. He also was happy to have freedom to use the library for research purposes whenever the need arises.

Roberta Goulding's opinion is that, "It is good because if there is something that really needs doing, you don't have to wait several minutes for roll call."

Physical Fitness For CJHS Girls

BY CONNIE HOOD

The girls of C. J. H. S. are not about to be left behind in the junior high's goal of superior physical fitness. "We were complaining about physical fitness," commented Mrs. Jean White, girl's physical education teacher, "but now we're quite pleased."

Mrs. White said she was surprised at most of the girl's total scores on the California Physical Performance Test, for physical fitness. Most scores were better than 50%; which is average fitness. The seventh and ninth grades were the most competitive in the final average scores. The over all average of the seventh grade was 54% and the ninth grade was 60%, but there were three girls who made outstanding scores in each grade. Seventh grade girls were: Connie Hood, 95%; Linda Shelton, 93% and Doreen Eyster, 90%; eighth grade girls were: Kathy Parker, 87%; Debbie Erk, 85% and Mary Jane Thompson, 84%; ninth grade girls were: Nancy Merz, 93%; Luanne Buckham, 91% and Tina Miller, 86%.

The California Physical Performance Test was developed by a committee of physicians, physiologists, coaches, parents, health and recreation leaders, teachers, school administrators and supervisors and college and university personnel. The tests are one way of finding the information to (1) identify physically underdeveloped students (2) adapt an introduction to individual needs (3) appraise students' progress and (4) adapt a program to the students needs. The skills on the girl's test are: 50 yard dash, 30 second timed sit-ups, modified pull ups, softball throw and standing broadjump.

Mrs. White feels that our physical education and physical fitness programs could be improved by having more facilities for indoor activities. She would also want to have the opportunity to meet each girl's individual needs, by improving the average girl and the girl who is physically underdeveloped and by bringing out the best skills of the better physically developed girl.

Tularcitos Parents To Hear Frank Grover

Mr. Frank Grover, president of the Grover-Jeannings Co., will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Tularcitos Parents Club next Tuesday, November 26. A resident of Carmel Valley for 5 years, Mr. Grover is a producer of educational films which are distributed throughout the world. He will show scenes from various movies at the meeting, set for 8:00 p. m. in the multi-purpose room, and will discuss the producing of films for classrooms.

Col. James Miller will preside at the business meeting, at which revenue producing activities will be discussed.

Hostesses for the social hour following will be room mothers Mrs. Robert Drew and Mrs. Walter Mauzey from Mr. John McCormack's 5th grade; and Mrs. Lou Allaire and Mrs. Ken Van Hagen from Mrs. Dona Newmann's 4th grade.

Carmel Woman's Club Book Section

The book section of the Carmel Woman's Club met Monday at the clubhouse to hear Mrs. Sinclair McClellon of Carmel, who introduced several new books of interest and reviewed the historical and biographical novel, "Annie's Captain," by Katharine Hulme.

The captain in the book and title is actually the grandfather of the author, and the book is based on research found in maritime libraries, ships' logs, in personal or business letters, and from first hand accounts as told to the author by Mrs. McClellon's mother and grandmother.

Several other features of the November book section meeting were displays of books, clipped reviews on bulletin boards, and catalogues to aid members in their book store purchases of children's books for Christmas giving.

Film at College

"LOS OLIVADOS," Luis Bunuel's film study of juvenile delinquency in the city, is the third fall offering of the Theater Arts Group at the Music Hall of Monterey Peninsula College. Two showings, (7:00 p. m. and 9:00 p. m.) on Friday, November 22. Tickets (only about 50 available for each screening) for non-season-ticket-holders may be picked up at the administration switchboard at the college this week. "Not for Children", this film earned Bunuel the prize for direction at the 1950 Cannes Festival.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

Eighteen members, including two new ones, attended a lively meeting of the Carmel Valley unit of the League of Women Voters last Friday at the home of Mrs. J. Stedman Wood on Garzas Road.

Presided over by Mrs. Alex Dobie, the group tackled the once-every-two-year problem of its National Current Agenda and Continuing Responsibilities. Mrs. Richard Eldred led the discussion.

As the League receives more and more respectful attention from more and more law-makers, its sense of responsibility for program increases.

The monthly General Meeting will be held on November 21 at 12:15 at the Youth Center in Monterey. Luncheon is $1.50 and visitors are welcome.

The Horse's Prayer

(PRINTED BY SPECIAL REQUEST)

(Ed. Note: Major General E. J. Dawley (Ret.), of La Rancheria, a former cavalryman of note, has long had "The Horse's Prayer," reprinted below, tacked on the wall of his stable. He says he has also long noted with pleasure the pleasant companionship of horses and youngsters riding together in the Valley. On a recent drive down Carmel Valley Rd., reports the General, he observed no less than nine young riders and their mounts.

"The children all looked happy and so did all the horses," he stated approvingly. He felt that the latter all looked well-managed and well-cared for. He loaned "The Horse's Prayer" to the Outlook "as a compliment to the fine young riders of Carmel Valley.")

TO THEE, MY MASTER, I offer my prayer. Feed me, water and care for me, and, when the day's work is done, provide me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort.

Always be kind to me. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins, and do not whip me when going uphill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or feet.

Do not check me so that I cannot have the free use of my head. If you insist that I wear blinders, so that I cannot see behind me as it was intended I should, I pray you be careful that the blinders stand well out from my eyes.

Do not overload me, or hitch me where water will drip on me. Keep me well shod. Examine my teeth when I do not eat; I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that, you know, is very painful. Do not tie my head in an unnatural position, or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

I cannot tell you when I am thirsty, so give me clean, cool water often. Save me, by all means in your power, from that fatal disease--the glanders. I cannot tell you in words when I am sick, so watch me, that by signs you may know my condition. Give me all possible shelter from the hot sun, and put a blanket on me not when I am working but when I am standing in the cold. Never put a frosty bit in my mouth; first warm it by holdint it a moment in your hands.

I try to carry you and your burdens without a murmur, and wait patiently for you long hours of the day or night. Without the power to choose my shoes or path, I sometimes fall on the hard pavements which I have often prayed might not be of wood but of such a nature as to give me a safe and sure footing. Remember that I must be ready at any moment to lose my life in your service.

And finally, O MY MASTER, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner, to be slowly tortured and starved to death, but do thou, My Master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You will not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a Stable.

AMEN

Chest Workers

Dr. Edward P. Marcucci wishes to thank the following Kiwanis Club members who assisted him in the Community Chest campaign in the Carmel Valley business area: Louis Allaire, Herbert Brownell, Dr. Robert Cater, Owen Dibbern, Byington Ford, Louis Gardner, Tom Hefling, Jim Large, Paul Porter, Elmer Uzzell, and Charles Strathmayer.

'My thanks also to the Outlook, which has always been so helpful and generous," wrote Dr. Marcucci, adding that 70% of the returns from the Village business district have now been received, and "judging from a breakfast conference we had this morning, we stacked up quite successfully compared to other districts on the Monterey Peninsula."

FOR THE SIXTH YEAR, the Monterey Peninsula branch of the World Affairs Council will sponsor a visit to this area of Foreign teachers in residence at San Francisco State College. The group will include, left to right, Miss Irma Vaca, Bolivia; Ji Soon Lee, Korea; Julian Amarilla, Paraguay; Miss Mercedes Canelos, Ecuador; Ryoichi Tanaka, Japan; and Mrs. Constance Dubner, San Francisco State YMCA. Fifteen other women teachers and 13 men teachers, all Fulbright grantees, will arrive this weekend to be guests of local families. Plans have been made for them to visit the Defense Language Institute and Carmel High School. During their stay they will also picnic at Point Lobos and attend a dinner given by the Carmel and Pacific Grove Rotary clubs. Saturday will be left free for the visitors to explore Carmel under the guidance of a WAC member. The group is composed of teachers from Mexico and 15 other countries in South and Central America, Europe and Asia.

Semi-Annual Bloodgiving

Because of the always-critical depletion of the blood supply during the Christmas holidays, the semi-annual blood giving in Carmel Valley has been scheduled for December 19 this year. The sharp increase in the number of accidents which occurs annually between December 22 and January 3 means that hospitals have more patients and require greater amounts of blood.

Since the holidays are among the busiest of the year, Carmel Valley residents are reminded now to mark their calendars for December 19, when the Bloodmobile will be at the Firehouse.

COLLEGE SPEAKERS

Copies of Monterey Peninsula College's 1963-64 Faculty Speakers Bureau Directory were mailed to Peninsula clubs and organizations today. The directory lists 28 faculty members and administrators who are prepared to speak on a wide variety of subkects

Extra copies of the directory are available without charge in the MPC public relations office. Program chairmen wishing to make arrangements for speakers may telephone Miss Shirlie Stoddard, 375-9821, Extension 25.

Kennel Club Winter Show

Plans are all set and premium lists are out for Del Monte Kennel Club's Second Winter All Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trials to be held on December 1, 1963, on the grounds of the Monterey County Fairgrounds, Monterey, California.

Because of the unpredictable weather this time of the year, Del Monte Kennel Club has planned an indoor-outdoor show. In case of cloudy skies, exhibitors will find ample indoor space for all judging. Convenient and ample parking is provided along with other spacious facilities.

Free handling classes are now offered by the Del Monte Kennel Club in preparation for the December 1st show. All owners of purebred dogs are invited to attend and learn, free of charge, how to groom and handle their own dogs. These classes will be held at 2:00 P.M. November 17th and 24th on the grounds of Carmel High School.

Entry deadline for the show is noon, November 18th. All exhibitors are urged to obtain their entry form at the handling class sessions or from veterinarians and pet shops on the Monterey Peninsula, and to make their entries early. For additional information, call OL 9-2037.

Trail & Saddle Will Celebrate Thanksgiving With Open 'Play Day'

Horse Tales by Allene Buchenroth

This column will be a bit of this and a little of that, but always about that best of hobbies -- Horses . . . . . Absolutely nothing decorates a landscape like a horse, as far as I am concerned, unless it's a lovely little girl riding one. So it's wonderful to see so many horses around in the Valley! And with bits of our beloved vale being nipped off on every hand for every sort of building and development, it is good to know that so many of our newcomers as well as old timers are keeping a place for horses, both in their hearts and in their back yards.

FILL NEEDED

At the Trail & Saddle Club grounds we are trying to build up the cover soil in the ring with suitable debris, and will welcome compost or clean fill dirt from friends as well as members. A river clearance project will soon be underway there, too. Ol' Man River has been far too busy washing our good earth out to sea.

WARM DAY CARE

These fine warm days when it is almost too hot to ride are real bonus times for riders, but they can be dangerous to the horses. Sometimes mounts are brought in hot and dripping in their heavy coats and left to stand -- then when the sun goes down it is suddenly very cold . . . A good rubbing down and a light blanket aren't too much for Dobbin to expect, I think . . . an ounce of prevention is such little trouble when balanced in the scale of a sick horse and attendant vet bills . . .

BIT EXCHANGE

I am starting a sort of helping hand bit exchange . . . not really starting, for I have been loaning a variety of bits to people for a long time in order that they might find the correct one for their particular horse without buying a lot of wrong ones . . . If you are having bitting problems, give me a call. Perhaps I can dig out just the one, and after you have tried it out you can buy a similar one. The theory of bitting is complex and makes a very interesting topic for a horsemen's discussion group -- another project I hope to promote soon!

Allene Buchenroth, well-known horsewoman and long-time Valley resident, begins a new column in today's Outlook and, coincidentally, is in charge of the Open Play Day with which the Trail & Saddle Club will celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday. Above, the drill team which Allene directs lines up on the Trail & Saddle Club grounds. Allene is at the left, Ann Warmington bears the flag at right. In the small photo, Allene's son, Carl, demonstrates the type of equestrian shenanigans that spectators (quite welcome!) may expect at the T & S grounds on Thanksgiving.

Everyone Invited To Play Day

Thanksgiving day will be celebrated with an Open Play Day from 11:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. Spectators are cordially invited as are owners of horses. Allene Buchenroth is in charge, and is planning games, timed obstacle courses with jumps, a team baton race, and other new events. She can provide a horse trailer for anyone requiring it. For further information, call her at home (659-2015) or business (624-3846).

CV Horsemen Elect Officers

Bob Rettig has been elected president of the Carmel Valley Horsemen's Association for the coming year; Dr. John Holmes, vice-president; Lee Rettig, Secretary, and Barbara Mathieson, Treasurer.

Names to the Board of Directors of the organization were Dick McKenzie, Eddie Escobar, and immediate past president Vic Silva.

The Association held its annual dinner last Saturday night at Carmel Valley Inn. A complete list of high point winners, which were announced at the dinner, will appear in these columns next week.
